

Michigan STAY-CAY Your Way

STOP #5

POINT BETSIE LIGHT

Fun Facts!

 Construction began in 1854, and the lighthouse was first lit in 1858.

 After 106 years, the lighthouse was the last staffed light on the great lakes.

 Point Betsie is said to be one of the most photographed lighthouses.

 Benzie County is the state's smallest by total land area.

 You're free to explore with only one stoplight in all of the county.

 Benzie County is the perfect place for adventure with 30 hiking trails and 25 miles of shoreline.
