STOP #9

OLD MACKINAC POINT LIGHT

Fun Facts!

 Originally constructed as a fog signal in 1889, the lighthouse was built in 1892.

 The light station closed following the construction of the Mackinaw Bridge in 1957.

 It's light was visible for an impressive 14 nautical miles.

 Mackinaw City has consistently been rated the top tourist city in the state of Michigan.

 Popular attractions include Fort Michilimackinac, the Mackinac Bridge, and the USCG Icebreaker Mackinaw.

 Historic Mackinac Island is just a short boat ride away, and is perfect for a day trip.

While You're in Town!

So much to see, either cross the Mackinac Bridge and stop at Suzy's Pasty Shoppe <https://thepasty-guy.com/portfolio/suzys-pasties/> or hop on Shepler's Ferry and explore Mackinac Island State Park <https://www.mackinacparks.com/parks-and-attractions/mackinac-island-state-park/>

Cheboygan is a neat town to see but The Cheboygan Brewing Company <https://www.cheboyganbrewing.com/> is a must visit. Blood Orange Honey at the end of the day is almost as good as an Oberon at The Oberon!
